

FLAPPA Articles and Bylaws proposed changes:

2011 Annual Meeting

(The Bylaws note that changes to the Constitution are to be shared with the membership 30 days prior to the annual educational conference. There is only one such change noted below. All Bylaws changes may be made and voted upon at any regular business meeting and may be brought from the floor.)

PROPOSED: Create a new member classification to allow for on-site outsource companies such as Sodexo, National, etc. to be shown as an institutional type member should their institution not want them to join directly under the institutions name. Their name would be shown as 'Company at Institution'.

Article I, Membership, Section B- Classification for Membership:

Institutional Contractor: Contracted or sub-contracted persons that provide facilities related services on-site to a specific institution. Institutional Contractor's are to be considered voting members and will enjoy the same rights and privileges as Institutional Members. Fees and dues would be the same as applies to Institutional Members.

Article III, Section A- Eligibility for Membership of the Constitution would need to be amended to read: "Participants shall be employees or contractors for Physical Plant Departments engaged in..."

CURRENT: Article I, Membership, Section C, Point 10: All dues shall be payable by December 1st, of each year and shall be considered delinquent 90 days thereafter.

PROPOSED: Article I, Membership, Section C, Point 10: All dues shall be payable within 30 days of membership anniversary date and shall be considered delinquent 90 days thereafter.

PROPOSED: Article 1, Section C, Point 10: Change membership duration from fiscal year limited to calendar year. IE: Currently dues paid at any time during the fiscal year expire on March 31 when the FY ends. Changing to calendar year membership, membership would be in effect for a full 12 months from the time dues are paid.

PROPOSED: Article VI Elections, Section C- Eligibility, point 2: Amend to read "No more than two officers may be from the same institution except for the Past President [unless deemed necessary by the Executive Board for the continuance of the organization]. An officer whose term expires may not be succeeded in the same office by a member from the same institution [unless deemed necessary by the Executive Board for the continuance of the organization]."

PROPOSED: Article VIII Awards: Change wording to read: If it is so determined, the President shall present such award at the next regular meeting of the Chapter, Annual Meeting, or at an appropriate point during the Annual Educational Conference.

CURRENT: Article VIII Awards: If it is so determined, the President shall present such award at the next regular meeting of the Chapter.
